Brief Descriptions (*Not a substitute for the policy language)

- Bodily Injury – Covers injuries or damages that you or someone driving your vehicle is responsible for due to an auto accident.
- Property Damage – Pays to repair or replace property of others that you or someone driving your auto is responsible for fixing as a result of an auto accident.
- Medical Expense – Covers expenses for medical and doctor bills, surgery, ambulance fees, hospital fees, professional nursing, funerals, dental services, and prosthetic devices needed due to occupying or getting into or out of your vehicle (doesn't need to be an "accident").
- Collision Deductible – Covers the amount to repair your vehicle when it is damaged in a collision with another vehicle or object, such as when you have an accident with another car or a tree.
- Comprehensive Deductible – Covers the amount to repair your vehicle when damage is caused by something other than collision with another vehicle or object. Includes events such as hail, fire, theft, vandalism, contact with an animal (such as deer or bird), or falling objects (such as tree branches).

You May Want to Consider

To increase the protection provided, you may want to consider the following options:

- Travel Package – If you have a claim or mechanical/electrical breakdown occurring more than 100 miles away from home, this package will reimburse you for reasonable expenses incurred. This includes transportation to your destination or home, lodging and meals. You must have Comprehensive and Collision coverage on at least one vehicle in order to add this coverage.
- Ride Share – This option extends all of the coverages of your policy for accidents that occur while you are using your auto for ridesharing or driving for a Transportation Network Company (TNC) such as Uber.
