

Declination Reasons

Safeco Insurance Company of America

The process of preparing a quote includes a review of many factors, such as your driving record, loss history and other information you provided. Based on this review, the company(ies) listed above determined that you did not meet their eligibility requirements and therefore they were unable to provide you with the automobile insurance quote you requested. The reason(s) for the decision include:

- Does not meet the company underwriting standard
- Driving record or claims history
- Number of inquiries reported
- Average amount of time accounts have been established
- Number of open accounts reported as 'paid as agreed'
- Number of adverse public record(s) or adverse account(s), not including bankruptcy

The information about your credit history that we relied upon was provided by TransUnion, a consumer reporting agency. TransUnion can provide you with a free copy of your credit report, and can answer questions about that report, but, because TransUnion did not make this decision, TransUnion will not be able to answer questions about our decision.

Because this consumer information adversely affected your ability to obtain insurance with Safeco, all of the companies listed above are providing this notice as required under the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

The Fair Credit Reporting Act gives you certain rights regarding information about you. You have the right, under Section 612, to obtain a free copy of the report from TransUnion, as long as you request it within 60 days of receiving this letter. You also have the right, under Section 611, to dispute with them the accuracy or completeness of any information contained in the report.
