Your Privacy - Information Gathering

Most of the information gathered comes directly from you. However, on occasion, we will need additional information or need to verify information that we already have. This information is provided by consumer reporting agencies and may include credit and/or loss history reports. You have the right to access such information and correct the information if you feel that it contains errors. Additional details about our information and disclosure practices are available on request.

It is unlawful to knowingly provide false, incomplete, or misleading facts or information to an insurance company for the purpose of defrauding or attempting to defraud the company. Penalties may include imprisonment, fines, denial of insurance and civil damages. Any insurance company or agent of an insurance company who knowingly provides false, incomplete, or misleading facts or information to a policyholder or claimant for the purpose of defrauding or attempting to defraud the policyholder or claimant with regard to a settlement or award payable from insurance proceeds shall be reported to the Colorado Division of Insurance within the Department of Regulatory Agencies.

I am applying for issuance of a policy of insurance and, at its expiration, for appropriate renewal policies issued by members of the Nationwide group of companies.

I understand and agree that any information about me that is contained in or that is obtained in connection with this application or any policy issued to me may be used by the company within the Nationwide group to issue, review or renew the insurance for which I am applying.

I have read the above application and I declare that all of the foregoing statements are true; and that these statements are offered as inducement to the Company to issue the policy for which I am applying. I agree that such policy maybe null and void if the information that is provided in the above application is false or misleading in any way, whether intentional or unintentional.
