

CIA Prospective Agent Non-Disclosure

This non-disclosure agreement is between Career Insurance Agents (CIA) and Prospective Agent of this agreement. Whereas CIA and Prospective Agent wish to exchange certain information pertaining to the operations and contractual obligations of CIA and its independent contractors, these two parties hereby agree to the following conditions:

1. CIA will provide Prospective Agent with an original copy "Draft" of its standard Agency/Agent contract. In addition, CIA will provide Prospective Agent with additional information, both orally and in writing, as to the operations and benefits of becoming an Independent Contractor with CIA.
  2. Prospective Agent agrees not to share this information with any third parties not explicitly approved by CIA and to use reasonable and practical care to protect and maintain possession of the contract and any other materials provided to Prospect by CIA. This applies not only to all original documents, but to all copies that may have been made by or supplied to Prospect.
  3. Upon request of CIA, Prospective Agent will return all documents, materials, and notes both originals and copies to CIA within 15 days of the request.
  4. In the event of a breach or threatened breach of this Agreement, CIA shall be entitled to preliminary and final injunctions, in addition to any other rights and remedies available to it at law or in equity.
  5. The validity and performance of this contract are governed by the laws of the State of Colorado.
  6. This Agreement is binding upon the directors, officers, employees and agents of each party and will continue indefinitely, with the obligations of confidentiality surviving the termination of this Agreement.

Describe Your Present Situation and What has you exploring new opportunity? (Captive or Independent Agency! Motivation for exploring options?) *	Currently working for an independent agent. I have been writing insurance for a very long time. I have worked with the captive side and independent. I know the industry and I'm tired of being asked questions like. Are you sure you know how to fill out that COI? And being told If you don't write it as an annual policy and add renters then it's no benefit to the agency and they can just go down the street. I always look at the client and their needs at the time. I don't look at them as a number.
