HOMEOWNERS COVERAGE DESCRIPTION

The homeowner's policy provides protection against the financial consequences of personal losses. A homeowner's policy is a combination of property and liability coverages. The homeowner's policy is tailored to meet the needs of a homeowner. The following is a basic outline of the homeowners (HO-3) policy and the endorsements most widely used on the HO-3 policy.

The HO-3 Policy provides coverages for one or two family dwellings that are owner occupied or secondary. The HO-3 policy provides coverage against risks of direct physical loss to real property, except those causes of loss that are specifically excluded. In addition to the coverages stated under Section I, several additional coverages are included. Some of the coverages included are: debris removal, fire department charges, reasonable repairs charges, property removal charges, and coverage for trees, shrubs, and plants. These additional coverages are included to provide protection for the insured following a covered property loss. Each additional coverage has limitations and is subject to certain conditions. Coverages available for additional premium include:

- Identity Theft
- Special Computer Coverage
- Water Backup
- Ordinance & Law

DWELLING

This amount of insurance applies to the dwelling and attached structures. The limit of insurance for the dwelling is based on the value of the home and what it would cost to replace the home.

OTHER STRUCTURES

This coverage limit applies to detached structures such as garage or storage shed. The limit of coverage is set at 10% of the dwelling.

CONTENTS

Coverage C provides worldwide coverage for personal property of the insured. Special limits apply to some types of property, and some property is excluded from coverage. The overall limit for Coverage C is 50% of the dwelling limit. This is the percentage required to be eligible for Replacement Cost.

LOSS OF USE

This coverage applies in the event of a loss under Coverage A. If the insured was to temporarily lose use of the dwelling this coverage would apply. Payment would be made for expenses incurred to live elsewhere following a loss that makes the home unsuitable for living. Another method used to determine payment for loss of use is fair rental value, which is the amount of rent that could reasonably be charged for the premises, less any expenses that do not continue while the premises are unsuitable for living. The limit of coverage is set at 10% of the dwelling.

PERSONAL LIABILITY

Coverage E of the homeowner's policy provides liability coverage for personal exposures. The insuring agreement under Coverage E provides liability coverage if a claim is made or suit is brought against an insured because of bodily injury or property damage. Coverage is provided for the residence premise listed on the policy declaration. Coverage E also provides additional coverages for expenses such as defense cost, expenses incurred providing first aid to others, damage to property of others and loss assessment charges. The additional coverages provided under Coverage E are subject to limitations and certain conditions.

MEDICAL PAYMENTS

This coverage will pay the necessary medical expenses for bodily injury to others. Coverage applies to accidents that occur on the insured premises or any location when caused by action of the insured.

ENDORSEMENTS

Personal Property Replacement Cost: Property loss settlements under the homeowner's policy are made on an actual cash value basis. When the replacement cost endorsement is added, the loss settlement payment would be sufficient to replace the item for the cost at the time of loss without deductions for depreciation.

ENDORSEMENT

Entry optional if shown in the Common Policy Declarations. If no entry is shown, the effective date of the endorsement is the same as the effective date of the policy*

DISCLOSURE REGARDING SURPLUS LINES INSURANCE

Please Read the Following Carefully Before Purchasing Insurance From a Surplus Lines Insurer.

This policy is issued by a surplus lines insurer that has been approved by the Maryland Insurance Administration to issue insurance policies in the surplus lines insurance market. Surplus lines insurers are not under the jurisdiction of the Maryland Insurance Administration and do not possess a certificate of authority to transact insurance business in the State of Maryland. Because surplus lines insurers are not under the jurisdiction of the Maryland Insurance Administration, your ability to seek assistance from the State if you have a problem with your insurance company is limited.

The Property and Casualty Insurance Guaranty Corporation provides a fund that permits claimants or policyholders to receive payment of covered claims if their insurance company becomes insolvent (i.e., bankrupt) and is unable to pay the claims. However, this fund does not apply to surplus lines insurers. If a surplus lines insurer becomes insolvent (i.e. bankrupt), any claim that you have against the surplus lines insurer will not be covered by the fund administered by the Property and Casualty Insurance Guaranty Corporation.

If you have any questions regarding this disclosure or surplus lines insurance, please contact the Maryland Insurance Administration at 410-468-2340.

One-to-Four Unit Rental Homes

New! Flat roofs up to 15 years old are acceptable

Protect Your Properties: There's No Place Like a Well Insured Home

Eight in ten Americans believe that purchasing a house is a good financial decision, and nearly 68 percent believe that now is the time to buy. If securing an investment property is part of your financial strategy, attaining comprehensive insurance has never been easier.

In addition to having basic general liability and property protection, you can add coverage extensions for loss of rental income, equipment breakdown, business personal property, liability arising from your property manager and/or dwellings with an adjacent boat dock or slip. We aim to provide confidence and security from the unforeseen events associated with homeownership and management of owned rental properties.

We can help you find the right coverage for your business if:

- You own a one, two, three or four unit rental dwelling
- The dwelling was built in 1900 or later
- It is a new purchase
- You rent dwellings on an annual or short-term basis
- You own a dwelling as an individual, partnership, trust, corporation or LLC
- You own several dwelling properties

Regardless of how careful you might be, accidents happen. Don't damage your credibility and your reputation because of one accident; make sure you have the right insurance in place!

Claim Example

What if one of your tenants accidentally starts a fire in your building, causing thousands of dollars in damage? Our insurance offers you coverage in the event something like this happens.

Late one evening, a tenant at one of Jack's properties fell asleep while holding a lit cigarette. The cigarette dropped to the floor and burned slowly while the tenant slept. The subsequent fire resulted in $44,800 in damage to the building. In order to repair the damaged dwelling, the location was evacuated for two months. Due to the vacancy, the insured lost two months of rental income, totaling $2,000. The loss totaled more than $46,800.
